

XM should be able to cater to individual Metropolitan area users of their services. What they provide is a service. A service that many of us are willing to pay for.

I listen to XM for 1 reason. I like it. There is not any good radio stations around here and XM provides this. I am willing to buy the service. It should have the right to buy instant traffic and weather. Don't take that right away from me.